Jurisdiction

1. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Court”) has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

2. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

3. On September 15, 2019 (the “Petition Date”), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are operating their businesses and managing their properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. On September 18, 2019, the Court entered an order [ECF No. 59] authorizing the joint administration and procedural consolidation of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). On September 27, 2019, the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the "U.S. Trustee") appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors (the "UCC") pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code [ECF No. 131].

4. A description of the Debtors' businesses, the reasons for commencing the chapter 11 cases, and the relief sought from the Court to facilitate effective administration of these chapter 11 cases are set forth in the Debtors' Informational Brief [ECF No. 17].

The Retention Order attached hereto as Exhibit B and incorporated by reference allows the Debtors to compensate and reimburse Davis Polk in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Guidelines, and the Interim Compensation Order.

8. The Retention Order also authorizes the Debtors to compensate Davis Polk at its hourly rates charged for services of this type and for the firm's actual, necessary expenses incurred in connection with such services rendered during the Fee Period. Among other things, it permits Davis Polk to render the following services:

Additionally, Davis Polk has not received any payment or promises of payment from any source for services rendered or to be rendered in any capacity whatsoever in connection with matters covered by this Fee Application. A certification confirming Davis Polk's compliance with the Fee Guidelines is annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

10. To the extent that billable time or disbursement charges for services rendered or expenses incurred relate to the Fee Period, but were not processed prior to the preparation of this Fee Application, Davis Polk reserves the right to request compensation for such services and reimbursement of such expenses in a future fee application.

11. These professional services were rendered by Davis Polk's partners, counsel, associates and paraprofessionals from its various practice groups, including restructuring, litigation, corporate, intellectual property, executive compensation and benefits, and tax.

Davis Polk maintains computerized, detailed time records of services rendered by its professionals and paraprofessionals. The detailed records for this Fee Period were appended to Davis Polk's monthly fee statements. Davis Polk engaged in ongoing discussions with the Debtors regarding budgeting and staffing issues.

Case Status

13. Certain of the Debtors have been named in over 2,900 civil actions pending in various state and federal courts and other fora across the United States and its territories (the "Pending Actions"). The Debtors commenced these chapter 11 cases to pursue a fair and efficient global resolution of the Pending Actions in order to preserve the value of the Debtors' estates and put that value to work helping address and combat the opioid crisis. On July 12, 2023, the Court entered an order extending the preliminary injunction with respect to the Pending Actions through and including the earlier of (i) the date that an order confirming a plan of reorganization is entered and not subject to any stay, including the stay pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3020(e); and (2) the date 30 days after entry of an opinion or order vacating or reversing the May 30, 2023 decision (the "Second Circuit Decision") of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit ("Second Circuit") reversing the December 16, 2021 order of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the "District Court") vacating this Court's confirmation order (the “Confirmation Order”), affirming this Court’s approval of the Plan (as defined below), and remanding to the District Court for further proceedings as may be required.²

14. On September 17, 2021, the Court issued the Confirmation Order confirming the Twelfth Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Purdue Pharma L.P. and its Affiliated Debtors (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified, the “Plan”). On December 16, 2021, the District Court issued an order vacating the Confirmation Order. The Debtors began at once to explore settlement of the issues on appeal, including in the context of the mediation (the “Mediation”) ordered by the Court on January 3, 2022 among the eight states and the District of Columbia that opposed the Confirmation Order (the “Nine”), certain Sackler Family members and trusts (the “Sackler Mediation Parties”) and the Debtors.

15. The Mediation was a notable success. On March 3, 2022, the Nine and the Sackler Mediation Parties announced agreement on a settlement term sheet (the “Term Sheet”) that secures an additional $1.175 billion in guaranteed payments, up to $500 million in contingent payments³, and several material and meaningful noneconomic concessions from the Sackler Mediation Parties contingent on Court approval and consummation of the Plan. On March 10, 2022, the Court entered an order authorizing and approving the Term Sheet. Under the Term Sheet, each member of the Nine agreed to (and did) withdraw its opposition to the appeal of the District Court decision currently being prosecuted by the Debtors and the other Plan supporters. Accordingly, the Plan is no longer being opposed by any state in the country. As described above, the Second Circuit issued the Second Circuit Decision as to the appeals on May 30, 2023, reversing the District Court's order dated December 16, 2021, and affirming this Court's Confirmation Order. The Department of Justice thereafter submitted a petition for a writ of certiorari to the U.S. Supreme Court challenging the Second Circuit Decision. On August 10, 2023, the U.S. Supreme Court recalled and stayed the Second Circuit Decision, keeping the Plan on hold, and directed the parties to brief and argue the question of whether the Bankruptcy Code authorizes a court to approve a release that extinguishes claims held by nondebtors against nondebtor third parties without the claimants' consent as part of a chapter 11 plan of reorganization. Oral argument was held before the U.S. Supreme Court on December 4, 2023, and the U.S. Supreme Court has not yet issued its decision.

² The Preliminary Injunction was initially entered on October 11, 2019, became final on November 6, 2019, see Second Amended Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) Granting Motion For a Preliminary Injunction, Purdue Pharma L.P. v. Commonw. of Mass., Adv. Pro. No. 19-08289 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Nov. 6, 2019) [ECF No. 105], and has been subsequently amended. The currently operative preliminary injunction order was entered on May 31, 2024. See Thirty-Fifth Amended Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) Granting Motion for a Preliminary Injunction, Purdue Pharma L.P. v. Commonw. of Mass., Adv. Pro. No. 19-08289 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 31, 2024) [ECF No. 484].

³ Of these amounts, $898 million to $1.398 billion is to be paid into the estate, and $276.9 million is to be paid directly to a supplemental opioid abatement fund (the “SOAF”) established, structured, and administered by the Nine. Funds in the SOAF will be devoted exclusively to opioid-related abatement, including support and services for survivors, victims, and their families.

Actual and Necessary Expenses

17. As set forth in Exhibit E hereto, Davis Polk has incurred or disbursed $46,911.30 in expenses in providing professional services to the Debtors during the Fee Period. These expense amounts are intended to cover Davis Polk's direct operating costs, which costs are not incorporated into the Davis Polk hourly billing rates. Only clients for whom the services are actually used are separately charged for such services. The effect of including such expenses as part of the hourly billing rates would unfairly impose additional costs upon clients who do not require extensive photocopying, delivery, and other services. Davis Polk charges its bankruptcy clients $0.10 per page for photocopying and printing job expenses. On several occasions, overnight delivery of documents and other materials were required as a result of circumstances necessitating the use of such express services.

18. Regarding providers of online legal research (e.g., LexisNexis and Westlaw), Davis Polk charges all of its clients the standard usage rates these providers charge, which, due to contractual flat fees, may not always equal Davis Polk's actual cost. Davis Polk currently is under contract to pay these providers a flat fee every month. Charging its clients the online providers' standard usage rates allows Davis Polk to cover adequately the monthly flat fees it must pay to these types of providers.

19. Davis Polk has made every effort to minimize its expenses in the chapter 11 cases. The actual expenses incurred in providing professional services to the Debtors were necessary, reasonable, and justified under the circumstances to serve the needs of the Debtors, their estates, and other parties in interest.

Davis Polk's Requested Compensation and Reimbursement Should Be Allowed

20. Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for interim compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code to govern the Court's award of such compensation. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may award a professional employed under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual necessary services rendered ... and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1). Section 330 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, the court should consider the nature, extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

- (a) the time spent on such services;
- (b) the rates charged for such services;

- (c) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (d) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed; and
- (e) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

21. The foregoing professional services were performed by Davis Polk in an efficient manner, were necessary and appropriate to the administration of the chapter 11 cases, and were in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and other parties in interest. Compensation for the foregoing services as requested is commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problems, issues, and tasks involved. As required by the U.S. Trustee guidelines, annexed hereto as Exhibit F is a chart setting forth the comparative blended rates of the professionals and paraprofessionals who rendered services with a corresponding comparison of rates for professionals and paraprofessionals not involved in these chapter 11 cases.

Notice

22. The Debtors will provide notice of this Application in accordance with the Interim Compensation Order. The Debtors submit that no other or further notice be given.

WHEREFORE, Davis Polk, in connection with services rendered on behalf of the Debtors, respectfully requests allowance of reasonable compensation of such services rendered in the total amount of $5,648,541.00 and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred in the amount of $46,911.30, for an aggregate total of $5,695,452.30 for the Fee Period.

The Debtors’ corporate headquarters is located at One Stamford Forum, 201 Tresser Boulevard, Stamford, CT 06901.

New York, New York. I am familiar with the work performed on behalf of the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (“Debtors”) by Davis Polk.

2. I have reviewed the Fourteenth Interim Application of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP for Compensation for Services Rendered and Reimbursement of Expenses Incurred as Counsel to the Debtors and Debtors in Possession for the Period from January 1, 2024 through April 30, 2024 (the “Application”) to certify to certain matters addressed in the (i) Order Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals entered on November 21, 2019 [ECF No. 529] (the “Interim Compensation Order”), (ii) Rule 2016-1 of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, incorporating the Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements for Professionals in the Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases [General Order M-447], among other guidelines (the “Local Guidelines”), and (iii) The United States Trustee’s Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11 U.S.C. § 330 for Attorneys in Larger Chapter 11 Cases effective as of November 1, 2013 (the “U.S. Trustee Guidelines,” and together with Local Guidelines, the “Fee Guidelines”).² The Application covers the period January 1, 2024 through April 30, 2024 (the “Fee Period”).

3. To the best of my knowledge, information and belief, the statements contained in the foregoing Application are true and accurate in all material respects and comply with the Fee Guidelines in material part. Davis Polk responds to the questions identified in the U.S. Trustee Guidelines as follows:

Question 1: Did you agree to any variations from, or alternatives to, your standard or customary billing rates, fees, or terms for services pertaining to this engagement that were provided during the application period? If so, please explain.

² Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Interim Compensation Order.

Answer: Davis Polk has agreed to negotiated discounts off of its standard rates.

Question 2: If the fees sought in the Application as compared to the fees budgeted for the time period covered by the Application are higher by 10% or more, did you discuss the reasons for the variation with the client?

Answer: Because of the contemplated effective date and exceptional nature of activities during the Fee Period, there was no written budget for the Fee Period. However, Davis Polk engaged in ongoing discussions with the Debtors regarding budgeting and staffing issues and provided the Debtors with fee estimates for various scenarios following resolution of the appeals.

Question 3: Have any of the professionals included in the Application varied their hourly rate based on geographic location of the bankruptcy case?

Answer: No.

Question 4: Does the Application include time or fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing, or revising invoices?

Answer: The Application includes time and fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing, or revising invoices in connection with the preparation of four monthly fee statements relating to the Fee Period covered by the Application. Davis Polk is seeking compensation for approximately 91.4 hours and $85,333.00 in fees related to reviewing and revising time records with respect to both the preparation of such fee applications, and reviewing time records for redactions as queried in question 5, which collectively represents approximately 1.5% of the aggregate amount of the fees requested.

Question 5: Does the Application include time or fees for reviewing time records to redact any privileged or other confidential information? If so, please quantify hours and fees.

Answer: The Application includes time and fees related to reviewing time records to redact any privileged or other confidential information. Such charges are included in the time charges set forth in the response to question 4 and are not separately calculated.

Question 6: Did the Application include any rate increases since retention in these cases?

Answer: The Application includes a customary annual rate increase for all timekeepers as disclosed in a supplemental declaration filed on the Court docket at ECF No. 6091. Prior annual rate increases for all timekeepers were disclosed in supplemental declarations filed on the Court docket at ECF Nos. 5317, 4259, 2219, and 703.

Question 7: Did the client agree when retaining Davis Polk to accept all future rate increases? If not, did Davis Polk inform the client that they need not agree to modified rates or terms in order to have you continue the representation, consistent with ABA Formal Ethics Opinion 11-458?

Answer: The client agreed to annual rate increases as described in Davis Polk's retention application.
